

Finding God and Letting God Find You

The Ignatian Examen

May 2, 2017— Loyola Building

Morning Session: 9:00am – 11:00am

Evening Session: 7:00pm – 9:00pm

A Jesuit once said, “we tend to walk through life half alive – running by what gives us life, while caught in the daily grind that drains life from us.”

We may get tired of being tired or we try to seek outside escapes from our inside discomfort. Most of us search for God in distant places, not realizing that God’s presence is very close to us – with easy access!

Come join us and experience the Ignatian Daily Examen so you can be fully alive, build loving relationships and find God in all things.

Come and take time to pause, listen and reflect on the Word of the Lord in the peaceful surrounding of The Jesuit Spiritual Center.
