Reflecting on the 1st Week of the Spiritual Exercises

Fr. Mitch Pacwa, SJ will use the psalms to reflect on the first principle and foundation which means the purpose of life is to give glory to God. We then reflect on the need for repentance for failing to give glory to God by reflecting on the penitential psalms.

Included in your retreat are opportunities for mass, reconciliation, adoration, stations of the cross, the rosary, silent reflection, and a healing service.

Father Mitchell Pacwa, S.J., a Jesuit priest ordained in 1976, is a distinguished Catholic scholar and media personality known for his deep knowledge of Scripture, Islam, and Middle Eastern cultures. He holds multiple advanced degrees, including a Ph.D. in Old Testament from Vanderbilt University, and is fluent in twelve languages. In 2000, he founded Ignatius Productions, a Catholic media apostolate. He is widely recognized for his work on EWTN, where he hosts television and radio programs, and is a best-selling author of numerous Catholic books. In addition to his academic and media contributions, Father Pacwa developed a love for hunting in 2005, appreciating the spiritual solitude it offers.
