Reflecting on the Third Week of the Spiritual Exercises

Retreatants will dive into the Third Week of St. Ignatius' Spiritual Exercises through the Psalms that illuminate the suffering and death of Christ. Through Scripture, prayer, and Ignatian contemplation, you will reflect more deeply on the Passion and Christ's complete trust in the Father. This retreat offers an opportunity to accompany Jesus in his suffering and to encounter more profoundly the love of God revealed through the Cross.

Also included in your retreat are opportunities for mass, reconciliation, adoration, stations of the cross, the rosary, silent reflection, and a healing service.

Father Mitchell Pacwa, S.J., a Jesuit priest ordained in 1976, is a distinguished Catholic scholar and media personality known for his deep knowledge of Scripture, Islam, and Middle Eastern cultures. He holds multiple advanced degrees, including a Ph.D. in Old Testament from Vanderbilt University, and is fluent in twelve languages. In 2000, he founded Ignatius Productions, a Catholic media apostolate. He is widely recognized for his work on EWTN, where he hosts television and radio programs, and is a best-selling author of numerous Catholic books. In addition to his academic and media contributions, Father Pacwa developed a love for hunting in 2005, appreciating the spiritual solitude it offers.
